Guiding principles and Practices Expanded

Guiding Principles	Practices
Invite and Honor Unique Contributions How can we acknowledge, respect and utilize the wisdom and experience of all generations, including those that came before or after us?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use personal storytelling and deep listening techniques for identifying the common hopes we share, independent of age or stage. • Do Community Asset Mapping of unique contributions and experience of each generation.
Foster Real Partnerships How can we shift traditional mindsets and assumptions in ways that deal compassionately with hierarchies and stereotypes, which can keep us stuck in unproductive relationships between generations?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bring multigenerational teams that model collaborative leadership to host key gatherings. • Identify issues of common concern that are larger than individual interest. • Use proven dialogue methods that uncover hidden assumptions and mindsets in collaborative ways.
Design Innovative WT Experiments How can we embody the Wiser Together approach to the work we are already doing in order to test and share the evolving Wiser Together guiding principles, approaches and core questions, as well as our ongoing learnings?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practice leading edge learning methods such as participatory action research. • Engage on-line communication and collaboration tools such as Maestro Conference to design and share the results of action learning experiments across networks and share discoveries. • Create venues for face to face gatherings that foster multi-generational story-telling around key projects.
Create Safe & Inclusive Spaces How can we design physical environments and collaborative processes which assure that every voice and perspective has the equal opportunity to contribute their gifts?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use large group hosting practices, World Cafe, Open Space, Appreciative Inquiry and collaborative on-line sensing tools such as Swarmworks. • Engage dialogue based collaboration processes such as Blueprint of We to build strong and lasting partnerships. • Create hospitable spaces which include sharing nourishment for body, mind, and spirit. • Build on recent discoveries in brain science regarding pattern recognition, laying down new neural pathways etc.

Use Creative Ways of Learning and Working Together How can we introduce authentic dialogue, the arts, ritual and celebration as well as other modes of creative expression to access collective intelligence and cultivate wise action?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use proven dialogue methods such as World Café, Appreciative Inquiry, Circle techniques, Non-Violent Communication, Compassionate Communication, use of Talking Piece etc. • Invite the use of music, movement, art, poetry, silence, and other forms of creative expression—both individual and collective. • Engage the natural world as an ally
Cultivate Meaningful Friendships How can we create opportunities to build strong personal relationships of mutual trust and respect with others across the life cycle in all Wiser Together projects?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Share meals and other informal times together. • Use personal storytelling/storysharing as a core process. • Inquire into each other’s dilemmas and concerns. • Use methods of reconciliation. • Play as well as work together!
Learn Together, Harvest Insights, and Share Discoveries How can we individually and collectively incorporate time for reflection and mutual learning as well as the documentation and sharing of stories, tools, and frameworks across our networks?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use graphic facilitation/documentation in both face to face and virtual gatherings. • Adapt After Action Reviews • Create digital records of Wiser Together gatherings and designs. • Develop & continually evolve a Wiser Together Playbook incorporating key designs. • Create multi-gen “ambassadors” to other networks and conferences. • Develop and maintain a Wiser Together website and other on-line resources.
Share the stories of our past. Develop the stories of our future. How can intergenerational partnerships create opportunities to learn the truth about history and to allow meaningful relationships to be at the root of designing the future we imagine?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Share the stories and forces that have shaped who we are – personally, culturally, etc. • Tell stories and help each other stay informed about what is going • Critically analyze what happens when we come together • Allow the stories from the past to influence the future by not repeating the past but allowing it to inform positive futures.
